

GOOD STORIES ABOUT ANIMALS

Frenchman Rescued From a Ditch Into Which He Had Fallen by His Dog.

SCARE CAUSED BY A RAT

PLIGHT OF A GIRL WHO GOT NERVOUS.

(New York American.) Recently it occurred to one of the Philadelphia patrolmen that it would be a relief in the lonely hours of the morning when he took his dog to share the weary vigil. He did so, and the dog soon got into the habit of following his master to the station house, standing in line when the roll was called and accompanying him everywhere on his beat. By agreement the animal was a policeman's dog, and he was not to be taken into the station house unless he was needed to become familiar to the dog. It required only one experience with a sleeping tramp freezing in an alleyway on the policeman's beat to show the clever animal what was required of him. Thereafter Rex, who is a fine specimen of the St. Bernard breed, spent most of his time when on "duty" nosing up alleys, peering under wagons, searching in doorways, hunting in gutters and sniffing about dark corners, always on the watch for some wayward dead to the world and likely to be dead in actual fact unless speedily restored to consciousness.

Rex adopted his own method of procedure when he found such cases. Running to his master, he caught at his coat and dragged him to the spot where the sleeping tramp or isolate lay. Not until the man had been transferred to the ambulance or patrol wagon was Rex ever satisfied to resume his search for other unfortunate.

From the search for men who had fallen unconscious by the wayside to the recovery of lost children was a natural and easy transition. Rex grasped the idea quickly that a child crying in the midst of a group of sympathizers was pretty sure to be lost. In the daytime, when his master was sleeping, Rex, who seems to be able to get along almost without rest, will wander the streets looking for lost children. Occasionally he makes mistakes and half frightens to death some youngster who is not lost, but is merely in tears over one of the numerous vicissitudes of infant life.

In addition to his cleverness in rescuing freezing wayfarers and bringing to the station house strays from the family fold, Rex has to his credit the finding of no less than five fires in a household condition that, taken in time, can be quenched with a bucket of water. With keen scent, Rex smells fire long before the presence of the smoke issuing from some crevice discloses the danger to the watchman. In this way he has saved thousands of dollars' worth of property.

Owes His Life to His Dog.

How apt is the description of the dog as the friend of man is shown by the following story. Four young men from Sonoma, in the Voses, were returning at night from the frontier, and walking in Indian file, when one of them named Champy, blinded by a snowstorm, fell into a ditch by the wayside, and his comrades, not observing the accident, went on without him. Happily for Champy, a dog that was with them stayed behind and kept him company, and when his comrades missed Champy and came back to look for him they found the faithful animal stretched out on top of him, doing its best to keep him warm. The young man was conveyed to a neighboring farm and gradually restored to consciousness. His hands were badly frostbitten and it was nearly a month before he was able to get out and about him, but if it had not been for the protection against the extreme cold afforded him by the dog's body he would not have lived until morning.

Dog Has No Psychic Life.

John Burroughs, poet and nature student, says: "A dog has no psychic life. He has no intellect. He has only what the psychologist term sense-memory—that is, memory by association. The dog has become half human from ages of association with man, and he has almost anything of him, except the faculty of thought and of abstract memory. My neighbor's dog has never failed to find a bone that was always 'scrapping' with another dog. One day my dog died. After that whenever I walked abroad and met my neighbor's dog he never failed to look all around me for his late enemy, as much as to say: 'I don't see your dog. Where is your dog? What has become of your dog?' That was memory by association."

Scare Caused by Little Rat.

Most women are afraid of rats—some being more easily frightened than others—but all are more or less adverse to having them around. One particular young society woman in Kansas City has been pained when it comes to fear of the little gray pests. She almost goes into hysterics every time a rat or a mouse, no matter how small, shows itself in sight of her. And this extreme dread and fear of rats caused her to arrive very late at a dinner recently.

She was in her room, on the second floor of her home, getting ready for the happy event, when the rustle of a piece of paper in the corner attracted her attention. She looked in that direction, every fiber of her body quivering, and the terrorized young woman sprang upon a trunk to escape the horrible fate she anticipated.

The rat, not being disturbed, grew bolder as the minutes slowly dragged along. She sat on the trunk, and slowly he snifled here and there. All the time watching.

TELLS BY THEIR SLEEP

"I can tell by my little ones' sleep when a cold is coming on," said a mother when speaking of the advance symptoms of colds in children. "They toss about, are restless, their breathing is heavy and there are symptoms of night sweats. The next morning I start with Scott's Emulsion. The chances are that in a day or two they are all over it. Their rest is again peaceful and the breathing normal."

Here's a suggestion for all mothers. Scott's Emulsion always has been almost magical in its action when used as the ounce of prevention. Nothing seems to overcome child weakness quite so effectively and quickly as Scott's Emulsion.

SOCIALISTS TAKE UP CHASE OF THE IDAHO SUSPECTS

Government Denounced at a Meeting in Chicago for the Arrest of Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone—Oscar Neebe Among the Speakers.

Chicago, March 4.—At a meeting here today of the Industrial Workers of the World, an organization recently launched for the purpose of uniting laboring men and socialists, A. M. Simmons, editor of the International Socialist Review, was vigorously applauded when he denounced the government authorities for the arrest of the men accused of complicity in the assassination of ex-Governor Steunenberg of Idaho.

"We are growing in strength and nearing a crisis," he said. "We are strong enough to prevent them from hanging those men in Idaho. Our lives must be given before we permit them to hang."

Another speaker at the meeting was Oscar Neebe, one of the Haymarket rioters, who has not been heard in public since his conviction, imprisonment and subsequent release. A subscription amounting to $200 was made for the purpose of assisting the officers of the Western Federation of Miners in the defense of Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone and their comrades who are under arrest in Idaho.

REPRESENTED THE COUNTRY

German View of the Trip of the President's Daughter to the Orient Last Year.

Berlin, March 4.—Prof. Albrecht Wirth of Munich today contributes a signed article to Der Tag on the possibility of President Roosevelt and Emperor William exchanging visits. Professor Wirth has connections with the foreign office, and his suggestions therefore have a certain interest.

"Congressman Nicholas Longworth and Mrs. Longworth are expected to Berlin in May," he says. "This is not the first time that the president's daughter will have represented the United States diplomatically. Her journey to East Asia, as an official character which was expressed by her accompanying a member of the cabinet.

"President Roosevelt himself is not permitted to leave American territory, but as an American warship is American territory, as President Roosevelt has already proved in practice, why cannot the president give another example by visiting Kiel? Emperor William could then choose to return visit of the same form, going on a warship to waters near Washington. These visits would add much to the mutual friendship of the two countries."

CONCESSION IS GRANTED

Turkish Government to Admit American Educational Materials Duty Free.

Constantinople, March 4.—It is declared in official quarters that orders have been sent to Beirut, Syria, to refund the customs duties paid under protest on consignments of educational material destined for the American schools there and the future to admit such consignments duty free, but communication on the subject has not yet been sent to Mr. Leishmann, the American minister here.

A dispatch from Constantinople Feb. 28 said that the American legation was urgently impressing on the porte the necessity for prompt official recognition of the demand that the American scholastic institutions at Beirut and elsewhere be entitled to identical treatment with the schools of other nationalities. Recognition was promised at the time of the American naval demonstration in August, 1924, and in some quarters the impending visit of Rear Admiral Sigbee's squadron to Beirut was thought to be in connection with the question, but the American legation pointed out that the visit of the American ships was part of the ordinary programme of the squadron's cruise in the Mediterranean.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

San Francisco, March 4.—At the meeting of the Fishermen's Protective union of the Pacific coast and Alaska tonight, the following officers were elected: President, Ed. Anderson; secretary, I. N. Hylen; treasurer, E. Anderson; agent at Seattle, Hans Goranson; agent at Astoria, H. M. Lortzen. San Francisco yielded the honor to Astoria for the holding of the next conference of fishermen, which will convene at the latter place on March 12. A committee to draw up a schedule of wages and percentage for the coming season was elected, the same to report at the next meeting, March 9.

All first-class restaurants and homes have Vienna bakery bread.

SITUATION ALARMING.

Helsingfors, Finland, March 4.—Daring robberies which are being committed in Finland are terrorizing the population. They are attributed mainly to Letts and Estonians who fled from the Baltic provinces; but the alarming feature is the social democrats, who are strong in the grand duchy and are sympathizing with and showing a disposition toward making common cause with the revolutionists across the gulf.

DEVOID OF LEGALITY.

St. Petersburg, March 3.—At a meeting today of six thousand members of the Industry and Commerce association a resolution was unanimously passed that Russia's prosperity was dependent upon the liberties granted in the imperial manifesto of October 30 last, which must be incorporated in the fundamental laws of the empire, and that the present procedure governing bodies is devoid of all legality and cannot longer be tolerated without menacing to the country and the dynasty.

MURDER IN CHINATOWN.

San Francisco, March 4.—Lem Chung, a Chinese cook, was shot six times on the street in front of his room today and walked ten feet to his quarters and fell dead in the roadway. The victim, a Chinese, leaped through an alley leading into a vacant lot. There were several witnesses to the shooting. Policemen are inclined to think that the murder was the outcome of a love affair between the dead and a stylishly dressed young man who fired the half dozen shots, all of which took effect.

The girl with his bright little eyes. He would disappear for a few minutes, and the young woman's terror would increase. For while she could hear him rummaging around in the room, she could not tell how close he was to her.

Finally a cab drove up to the front gate and a stylishly dressed young man stepped out and was ushered into the parlor.

"Come right in, Mr. —," said the girl's mother. "Elizabeth will be down in a minute."

But the minutes came and the minutes went, and the young man looked at his watch very nervously many times as he saw the hour set for the dinner pass. The girl's mother, thinking to be very polite, remained in the parlor to entertain her daughter's escort. The hostess giving the dinner was an anxious look as her friend did not arrive, and other guests wondered why the dinner was being delayed.

Finally the mother excused herself and went to see if she could hurry her daughter. And what did you suppose she saw? Her daughter was still standing on that trunk, with the few skirts she had on pulled as high as she could get them, and the rat was playing unconcernedly in a corner, oblivious of the trouble he had caused.

ATTACK UPON THE THEATRES

Archbishop Glennon of St. Louis Deplores Tendency to Patronize Playhouses.

St. Louis, March 4.—In a sermon delivered today by Archbishop J. J. Glennon he severely criticized theatres and deplored the tendency of people to patronize them. He said in part: "To go night after night to the theatre is a mark of decadence. You avoid the cancer hospital and the pest house, while night by night you go to the theatre to enjoy the sad procession of moral leprosy, the cancerous growths, the deadly veins that destroy the souls of men. "Roue and demimonde are depicted with staring realism and men's depravity and women's shamelessness are held forth as the expressions of genius, and it means for entertaining a Christian people."

"You say even still there is genius back of it all. Yes, perhaps. But it is only the genius that guides the tomb; the phosphorus that accompanies the last stages of putrefaction."

JAPANESE ENTERPRISE.

Rapid Extension of Merchant Marine Since Close of War.

Washington, March 4.—Consul General Rodgers at Shanghai reports that since the close of the war with Russia Japan has entered actively upon the extension of her merchant marine.

He refers to semi-official reports that Japanese ships will soon reach every port touched by Pacific waters and says the shipbuilding companies in Japan are building new vessels, repairing old ones, altering captured craft and adapting everything they have afloat, whether the carrying trade of the Pacific.

Consul Liefield of Frieberg reports on Germany's completion of the new Pacific cable from Shanghai to Yap, in the Caroline Islands, which he says covers nearly 2,000 miles, a cable that makes it the first continuous non-English line to encircle the globe and is the greatest feat of engineering in the world and reaching 22,966 feet.

VISITING TWIN CITIES.

Imperial Chinese Commissioners See the Big Flour Mills.

St. Paul, Minn., March 4.—The Imperial Chinese commissioners, appointed to make a study of the commercial, industrial and educational conditions in this country and in Europe, arrived in St. Paul this afternoon on the way to the east. Tomorrow morning Prince Teal Tse and his party will be taken to Minneapolis, where they will visit the flour mills. In the afternoon the commissioners return to St. Paul, where they will inspect the state capital. The party leaves for the east tomorrow night.

MOBS MAINLY MADE UP OF MERE YOUTHS

Springfield, O., March 4.—The militia now on duty here will return home tomorrow. The city has been quiet all day. The body of the dead brakeman, Davis, was taken to the home of his parents at Columbus today.

Evidence has been secured against 30 persons, including many mere boys. An investigation shows that the recent mobs were made up almost wholly of young men from 16 to 21 years of age.

Then Blew His Own Head Off—Terrible Deed of a Buffalo, N. Y., Physician.

Buffalo, March 4.—Henry L. Whitbeck, a physician and dentist, killed his wife with a hammer today and then blew out his brains with a rifle.

Whitbeck walked up behind his wife as she was sitting in a rocking chair and struck her a terrific blow on either temple with a hammer. Then he left the hammer on a table and went into the next room where he took up a rifle. Resting the butt end on the floor, he aimed the barrel and pulled the trigger. The top of his head was blown off.

Whitbeck was about the same age as his wife, 45 years. Whitbeck recently had been patient in a sanatorium. Mrs. Whitbeck was taken to a hospital where she died soon after.

RESTORE STRENGTH

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Actually Make New Blood and Good Health Follows.

The evil effects that follow many diseases—particularly the grip and the wasting fevers, such as typhoid and malaria, are caused by the bad condition in which these diseases leave the blood. As a result, the flesh continues to fall away, the sufferer grows nervous and irritable, and even slight exertion causes shortness of breath. These are dangerous symptoms and indicate that the system is in a state that invites pneumonia, bronchitis or even consumption. What is needed is a new supply of rich, red blood to carry health and strength to every part of the body.

"I was all run down from the effects of the grip," says Mrs. Amelia Hall, of No. 5 High street, Norwich, Conn., "and could not seem to get strength to walk; I could not eat a full meal, my stomach was so weak, and I was so nervous that I could not sleep. I could only stay in bed a few minutes at a time, either night or day. The least little thing would startle me. I had difficulty in breathing and had frequent fainting spells. "My general health was completely wrecked and I had neuralgia and rheumatic pains, dyspepsia, constipation, and female weakness. My physician attended me for the grip and again for the condition that it left me in, but I got no strength from the tonics he prescribed. In fact, nothing helped me until I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and they cured me."

"I grew stronger and gained flesh from the time I began taking them. I am satisfied that the pills are all that is claimed for them and I shall do all I can to make their good qualities known."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure nervous disorders of every kind, check wasting diseases and build up strength. For booklet, address Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.
